

A Note from Dena'

Hello, Old Man Winter! You have hit us head on. However, we will be staying warm with a visit from Sky, the dog therapy puppy, on the 4th. We will be filling the building with family, friends, and laughter on the 16th with our Annual Christmas Dinner. SPS will be sponsoring BINGO on the 18th, and we will be hosting our monthly Community BINGO on the 20th. Please feel free to join the Community Free Church in caroling on the 22nd, just after dinner. They will be coming door to door to sing and spread Christmas cheer. As we light the lights and sprinkle the garland, please remember to show each other love and peace this holiday season.

From our house to yours, may the joy of the season fill each of your hearts - my love and warmest holiday wishes! - Dena'

Employee of the Month - Matthew Workman

Tell us about yourself: I have a dog named Molly. She is a boxer, but she makes a great pillow. I am not married, but I am single and ready to mingle! I like the rhyme, "There once was a man from Peru, Who dreamt he was eating his shoe, He woke with a fright, In the middle of the night, To find that his dream had come true."

What do you do at The Glenwood: I work as a Certified Nursing Assistant and an intern.

What are your hobbies: I have a great passion for the outdoors, including camping, canoeing, fishing, and backpacking.

Matt is a valued CNA, intern, and friend of The Glenwood family!

Residents of the Month

Mary Ellen Henrickson

Tell us about yourself: I was married to my husband, Larry for 49 years. He passed in 2008, but in my heart, I am still married to him. I have two children, Steven, who is a Priest, and Lisa, who lives in Mahomet with her husband, Rick. I have two granddaughters who visit regularly. Before marriage, I had a brief teaching career, but then became a mother and housewife.

What are your hobbies: Larry and I square danced and played pinochle. I am an avid reader and love to read cookbooks.

Do you have any funny stories: Lisa, Mary Ellen's daughter, shared: Whenever we would visit, Mom would write out menus and cook our favorites. She would ask while we were eating one meal what we wanted for the next. We always came home with so much food. Mom could outcook and bake with the best of them.

Irma "Micki" Comer

Tell us about yourself: I married my husband, Norm, on July 12, 1947, and he passed in 2012. I have two children, Steven and Connie. Steven visits weekly, and we share stories of the family we lost. My favorite pet was a kitten named Snowball that I trained to come to me when I sang. Everyone called me "Micki" because Irma was an older name. I worked in sales and sold drapery for years.

What are your hobbies: I love talking about car shows with the other car show wives.

How long have you lived at The Glenwood: Irma moved into The Glenwood last winter and has filled the walls with laughter and personality ever since.

Do you have any interesting stories: Steven, Irma's son, says that Irma always told the kids when they were growing up that she would never divorce their dad, kill him, yes, but divorce him, no.
