

A Note from Lenda

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas at The Glenwood! Come on by and take a look at what our stellar interior decorators have done. The resident Christmas party is December 17th, and that is always a fun time.

We'll have presents, refreshments, and entertainment by Winston Dunbar, an outstanding pianist. A few days before the party, on December 14th, we are having a community Chili Supper. We want to give back to the community this Christmas season, so take a break from the hustle and bustle of shopping, and come and enjoy some warm chili, dessert, and drinks, compliments of The Glenwood.

The staff and residents of The Glenwood of Mt. Zion want to wish you a very Merry Christmas, and may we all remain aware of the reason for the season!

Employee of the Month - Kari Turner

Tell us about yourself: I was born in Springfield, IL, but I have lived in Decatur my whole life. I have a beagle named Cocoa who isn't a puppy anymore, but she acts like a big baby. I have been with The Glenwood now for one year and six months.

What are your hobbies: I have had too many hobbies to count since I was a child. I enjoy knitting, crocheting, and anything crafty. I also enjoy singing, playing guitar, piano, and archery!

What do you like most about working at The Glenwood: I am grateful I was hired at The Glenwood. My fellow employees are cool and we work well together and are very hardworking individuals. The residents are nice, and it's an overall interesting working environment; there is never a dull moment. I also like that it is a homey environment for the residents, which makes it a nice environment to work around.

Residents of the Month

Joan Cox

Tell us about yourself: I graduated from De Land High School and have lived in Farmer City and the Atwood-Hammond communities. I was married for 69 years. One of my sons, Alan, lives in the Chicago area, and my other son, Neil, lives in the Indianapolis area. My daughter, Janet, lives in Forsyth, and my daughter, Shirley, lives in southern Illinois. I have five grandchildren and two great grandsons.

What are your hobbies: As a farmer's wife, I stayed busy caring for the family and running errands. Church activities and giving piano lessons filled my time later. I also enjoyed playing golf and card and board games. Now, I spend time reading and watching television.

What do you like most about living at The Glenwood: I enjoy having good meals prepared for me, having a nice apartment, and helpful staff when I need assistance.
